

APPLICATION DEADLINES

The international student application for undergraduate admission and Certification of Finances form are to be completed by applicants currently holding or intending to seek an F-1 Student or J-1 Exchange Visitor visa to study in the United States. All other non-immigrant visa holders (including A, E, G, H, I and L), permanent residents and U.S. citizens who wish to apply for admission should complete a regular Transfer Application for undergraduate admission at www.admissions.umd.edu.

SEMESTER	DEADLINES
FALL	March 1: International students with or seeking F-1 or J-1 status must complete this INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION by this date.
SPRING	August 1: International students with or seeking F-1 or J-1 status must complete this INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION by this date.

All application materials must be postmarked by the deadlines.

Due to space limitations and the competitive nature of undergraduate admission at the University of Maryland, an international applicant must submit a complete application package as early as possible, and always before the deadlines. Applications completed after a deadline will not be considered for that semester, but will be reviewed for the following semester. Evaluation of an applicant's credentials will take place only after all application materials are received.

Transfer applicants will only be considered for admission for the term chosen on this application. Incomplete applications will be canceled once the chosen semester begins. The nonrefundable $55 application fee is required when the application is submitted. The fee will not be refunded if you choose not to complete the application process, cancel your application or disagree with the university's admission decision.

VISA RECORDS:

Applicants Residing Outside of the United States:

To enter the United States, international students residing abroad will need a passport from their government and a visa from the U.S. Consulate. In order to obtain a visa for the purposes of studying in the United States, the applicant must present a Certificate of Eligibility form to the U.S. Consulate. The university will issue this form to admitted students who have submitted proof of having sufficient funds to cover the cost of a program of study (see Certification of Finances form on pages 6 and 7). Admitted students with personal, family or another source of private funding will be issued the Certificate of Eligibility (form I-20) in order to obtain the F-1 Student visa. Admitted students who are sponsored by agencies, foundations or their home government, or who are participating in an established exchange program may be issued the Certificate of Eligibility (form DS2019) in order to obtain the J-1 Exchange Visitor visa.

Applicants Currently Residing in the United States:

Applicants currently holding F-1 Student or J-1 Exchange Visitor status in the United States need to submit a photocopy of their I-94 Arrival/Departure Record, visa stamp and current I-20 or DS2019 form along with proof of sufficient funds to cover the cost of a program of study (see Certification of Finances form on pages 6 and 7). Applicants with another type of non-immigrant status need to submit a photocopy of their I-94 Arrival/Departure Record and visa stamp, and must indicate if they intend to seek a change to F-1 Student or J-1 Exchange Visitor status. Upon admission and submission of the appropriate financial support documentation, the university will issue the appropriate Certificate of Eligibility (form I-20 or DS2019) to the student.

ABOUT YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER

If you have a Social Security Number, or SSN, you are strongly encouraged to provide it so that the university may more easily verify your information and process your application. Submission of your SSN is voluntary. Please note, however, that if you enroll at the university, you will be required to provide your SSN in order for the university to comply with federal and state reporting requirements.

Please be sure to include your name and birth date on each page you submit.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

We are pleased that you are interested in applying for undergraduate admission to the University of Maryland. Students who graduated from high school and subsequently attempted at least 12 semester hours or 18 quarter hours in a regular term at a regionally accredited college or university are considered transfer applicants. Successful transfer applicants demonstrate better-than-average grades in strong academic courses and completion of Fundamental Studies English and mathematics.

Due by March 1 for consideration for the fall.

Please follow these steps to complete your application to the University of Maryland:

1. Application: Complete the International Transfer Application. Apply online at www.admissions.umd.edu or print, complete, sign and mail the PDF of the application to the address below.
2. Application Fee: Include a nonrefundable application fee of $55 (payable to the University of Maryland) with your completed application.
 - a. Include the student's name and date of birth on the check, money order or credit card slip. We accept the following credit cards: Visa, American Express, MasterCard and Discover. We regret that we cannot accept cash or honor debit cards.
 - b. If you apply online, you may pay with a credit card (our Web site is protected by VeriSign) or be billed by the university separately.
3. College Transcripts: If you have completed college course work, submit an official copy of your college transcripts. Transcripts in native language should be sent with certified English translations from the institution directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.
4. High School Transcripts and Test Scores: If you have completed fewer than 30 semester or 45 quarter hours, request than an official copy of your high school transcript, as well as all SAT I and/or ACT scores for students who graduated high school in the last three years, be sent directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. Official test scores must be sent directly from the Educational Testing Service (SAT I code for Maryland is 5814) or the ACT program (ACT code for Maryland is 1746). Students with any foreign secondary school credentials must provide academic records in the original language with a certified English translation.
5. Essay: Submit a personal statement describing why you wish to transfer, explaining academic challenges and/or future goals. Your essay should be no more than 300 words.
6. Supplemental Information: Submit an optional résumé or statement of your academic extracurricular activities.
7. Certification of Finances form: Submit this form, along with documents such as a bank statement that demonstrate support of U.S. $41,997 per year.
8. English Proficiency: Regardless of your citizenship, if English is not your native language, you must provide the university with verification of your proficiency in English. Scoring 480 or higher on the critical reading section of the SAT I exempts you from this requirement. All others should have an official report of your scores from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) sent directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions by the appropriate application deadline listed on page A.
9. Photocopy of I-94 Arrival/Departure Record: Submit photocopy, along with visa stamp and current I-20 or DS2019 form (if already in the United States).
10. Track your status online: After submitting your application, track your status at www.admissions.umd.edu. This Web site enables you to view a listing of documents received by the admissions office and monitor the completeness of your application. Because of the high volume of mail we receive, we cannot list documents the day they are received. There will be periods of time, especially as due dates approach, when documents may take several weeks to process.

We encourage you to apply online at www.admissions.umd.edu. If you choose to use the PDF application, please print, complete, sign and mail all materials postmarked by the appropriate deadline to:

COURSES OF STUDY

The University of Maryland offers more than 100 courses of study and not all will be familiar to prospective students. We recognize that in some situations students have interests that span more than one subject area; if at all possible, however, we encourage you to select your preferred major at the time of application. Students who are truly unsure and wish to explore the educational opportunities available to them at the university may enroll in Letters and Sciences.

Complete item 2 in the application by selecting a major from the list on this page and entering the appropriate five-digit code. Those who are still exploring majors should select Letters and Sciences (4901Z). Majors appearing in italics indicate an area of concentration within a larger degree program.

LIMITED ENROLLMENT PROGRAMS (LEP)

The majors listed in this box have limited space and competitive requirements beyond those required for the university's general admission. Please note that selecting a limited enrollment major does not impact your chance for admission to the university. If you select a limited enrollment program and do not meet its requirements or if available space is filled, you will be admitted to Letters and Sciences. Early application is encouraged.

TRANSFER CREDIT

The University of Maryland accepts transfer credits taken only from regionally accredited institutions. The acceptance of credit will be determined by Maryland's Transfer Credit Center after an offer of admission is extended. You can visit the transfer credit center online at www.tce.umd.edu. Students with any non-U.S. academic records must provide them in the original language with a certified English translation by the earlier application deadline listed on page A.

If admitted to the university, applicants must also provide course description information, translated into English, for all international course work completed. Course descriptions may come either from an undergraduate catalog or from course syllabi. Please send all course descriptions to the Office of Undergraduate Admission. Please visit www.tce.umd.edu/faq.html for more information.

EVALUATION OF NON-U.S. ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Transcripts from institutions outside the United States are reviewed by the university's Office of International Education Services (IES). The university requires transcripts and course descriptions in the original language with certified literal English translations and, where possible, translated catalog access. Specific Web sites, if available, may be helpful.

Students with non-U.S. academic credentials, when applying to the university, should submit the following supporting documents to IES:

- A description of the course of study from the sending institution's catalog, including the contact hours or weight of each course;
- Detailed course outlines or syllabi, including the required textbooks and other reading material and the method of grading, for each class.

Remember, this information must be in English or accompanied by a literal English translation. It may be necessary to supply additional documentation, including writing samples, quizzes or portfolios; generally this is not required.

IES works with our academic departments to determine course equivalency.

If the academic department recommends credit, IES will contact the registrar to have credits applied to the student's Maryland record. University of Maryland faculty and IES are the final authority regarding the number of credits awarded and the equivalency granted.

It takes approximately four weeks after a student has been admitted for individual courses to be evaluated for equivalent credit at the University of Maryland, provided all material indicated above has been submitted.

FINANCES

International applicants requiring F-1 or J-1 visas to attend the University of Maryland must certify sufficient funds—exclusive of travel costs—to cover tuition and fees, books and supplies, living expenses and medical insurance for themselves and any dependents (see page 6). The estimated annual expense for an individual student for the 2009-2010 academic year is $41,997. The following amounts are approximate and may change at any time without notice.

Tuition and mandatory fees (two semesters)	$23,990.00
Living expenses for 12 months (room, meals, local transportation and incidental costs)	$14,983.00
Books, supplies and medical insurance	$3,024.00
TOTAL	$41,997.00

Tuition and fees for each semester, as well as other university charges, books and supplies must be paid in full before the first day of classes. Therefore, it is especially important to have adequate funds on hand at the start of each semester. Medical insurance is required for all international students attending the University of Maryland. Applicants currently holding or intending to seek an F-1 Student or J-1 Exchange Visitor visa to study in the United States must complete the Certification of Finances form, including bank statements that demonstrate sufficient funds to cover these expenses. See the form on pages 6 and 7 for more information. As a publicly funded institution, the University of Maryland is unfortunately unable to provide financial assistance to international students.

ENGLISH PROFICIENCY

Non-native English speakers (regardless of citizenship) who seek admission to the University of Maryland must verify their proficiency in English by taking and submitting an official score report from one of the following English proficiency exams:

TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)

IELTS (International English Language Testing System)

The test code for the University of Maryland is 5814.

TOEFL scores must be received electronically through ETS. An official report of your IELTS scores must be mailed from IELTS. All scores must be received no later than June 1, 2010, for the fall semester and by August 1, 2010, for the spring semester.

Those whose native language is English, or who earn an SAT I critical reading score of 480 or higher, or who have earned a post-secondary degree from a university in an English-speaking country do not need to take or submit scores from an English proficiency exam. Non-native speakers of English who have received a degree from an institution in the United States; English-speaking countries in Africa or the Commonwealth of the Caribbean; or English-speaking Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand or the United Kingdom may be exempt from presenting TOEFL scores. Transfer credit for an English composition course does not waive the English proficiency exam.

Applicants who score between 475 and 574 (paper) or between 84 and 99 (Internet) on the TOEFL may be offered conditional admission, requiring them to take and pass an English proficiency exam during orientation. IELTS scores of 7 with no sectional score lower than 6.5 are accepted as establishing English language proficiency.

Please be sure to include your name and birth date on each page you submit.
